PROSPERITY MAY BRING TAX REDUCTIONS

NEW FISCAL YEAR USHERED IN BY NATION

TREASURY BOOKS OF GOVERNMENT SHOW SURPLUS NEAR $390,000,000

HUGE SUM APPLIED TO REDUCTION OF THE PUBLIC DEBT

By JOSEPH S. WASNEY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, July 1.—A new fiscal year was ushered in by the government today with federal financial experts predicting that continuation of the prosperity wave will mean further tax reductons in the near future.

Treasury books were closed at midnight with a surplus of slightly less than $390,000,000. This huge sum was applied to reducing the public debt, which now stands at about $19,685,000,000.

A surplus of about $280,000,000 for the present year was forecast today by treasury officials. Prosperity, they pointed out, offsets the tax reduction of about $387,000,000, the expenditures for new public buildings and increased cost of enforcing the prohibition laws.

Individual and corporation income taxes during the fiscal year will be equally as large as the last returns, they said. The only decrease in revenue in sight is collection of back taxes.

Customs receipts for the year just dawned are expected to expand. Business is expanding and this means heavy revenues under the tariff laws, it was pointed out.

Government departments which operated cheaper last year under a cut budget system, will continue to practice economy according to present plans. Efficiency will replace carelessness and millions of dollars will be saved this way.

Optimists said the revenues would continue to increase this year and expenditures would be only slightly higher, assuring another tax reduction before the 1928 election. Despite a pessimistic trend in some quarters, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon and other government officials contend government finances are in excellent condition and there is no prospect of the country running into red ink.

Washington, July 1.—Secretary of the Treasury Mellon today announced that the government closed the 1925-1926 fiscal year with a surplus of $377,768,000.

Last minute expenditures totalled $9,000,000 and miscellaneous revenues fell off $2,000,000, leaving the surplus much less than the $390,000,000 estimated by President Coolidge.

The public debt during the fiscal year was reduced $85,000,000, making a total obligation now of $19,433,000,000.

Mellon announced that the treasury today was selling $43,000,000 bank bonds back to the loan banks. These bonds, taken by the government to establish a farm loan bank system, will be re-issued to the public at 4 1-8 per cent. Moneys derived from the sale of these bonds will be placed in the treasury to stabilize the government's finances until the next tax collection period in September. This fund which became available today, made the issuing of bonds on June 15, as was customary to finance the government, unnecessary.

The government revenues last year were $3,962,775,000 and the expenditures $3,584,987,000.

Income tax receipts were $1,982,040,000 and customs collections, $579,430,000.

SECTIONS OF STATE GET NEEDED RAIN

St. Paul, July 1.—(UP)—Scattered parts of Minnesota were drenched by rainfall early today. Precipitation was heaviest in the southern part of the state.

In St. Paul the downpour assumed the proportions of a small cloudburst shortly before 7 a. m. but the precipitation was only .4 of an inch. Fairmont reports .35 inch, Faribault 1.39 and Fargo, N. D., light showers, while none at all was recorded in Fergus Falls and Little Falls.

Falling temperatures preceded and succeeded the rainfall and a definite end to the heat wave was forecast by the weather bureau.

LENROOT TO WELCOME VOTE OF WISCONSIN

REFERENDUM ON PROHIBITION QUESTION TO BE VOTED THIS FALL

SENATOR SAYS HE WILL ABIDE BY THE RESULT

Ripon, Wis., July 1. — (UP)—Whatever the voters of Wisconsin may decide in the referendum on the prohibition question which will be voted upon this fall, will be welcomed by Senator Irvine L. Lenroot, he declared in the opening address of his campaign for reelection.

"If the majority of the votes upon that question should be in favor of modification, I should support it in the senate, believing that it would not violate the 18th amendment," he said. "If a majority of the votes should be against modification I would oppose any increase in the alcoholic percentage permitted by the present law.

"I have voted for all legislation which has been enacted for the enforcement and I shall continue to support legislation for the enforcement of the 18th amendment as long as I am a member of the senate.

"We must admit, however, that conditions are not so good as we expected when the amendment was adopted. This is chiefly due to lack of public sentiment calling for observance and enforcement."

"We are told that a majority of the people are against those provisions of the law which prohibit the manufacture and sale of beverages not in fact intoxicating. What the facts are in this respect we do not know and for that reason I am sorry to learn that an effort is being made to prevent the referendum ordered by the legislature on the proposed modification of the Volstead act."

REAL VACATION OF SWEDISH ROYALTY STARTS

Gardner, Mont., July 1.—(UP)—Away from the cheering throngs that have besieged them, Crown Prince Gustav Adolf and Princess Louise of Sweden will begin their real vacation at the Gardiner entrance to Yellowstone National Park late today.

Their royal hignesses will arrive on a special train from St. Paul-Minneapolis, and after an overnight pause here, will begin a six-day tour of the park as the guests of Secretary of the Interior Hubert Work. All points of scenic interest will be visited.

Prepared to "rough it," the crown prince and princess have had their formal attire forwarded to Salt Lake City and will be done with balls, receptions, dinners, speeches and cornerstone layings for the time being.

In the park, buffaloes will be brought down for their summer feeding grounds in order that their royal highnesses may see the animals in their native habitat.

A thrill awaits them at the Grand Canyon of the Colorado. They will descend into it on burros and will remain at its bottom overnight so they may view the beauties of sunrise from the depths.

Their royal highnesses left St. Paul-Minneapolis Wednesday. En-oute, their train passed that of Roald Amundsen, Norwegian explorer, who is eastward bound.

"The beginning of the far west" was hailed by Prince Adolf in a rear platform speech at Fargo, N. D.

NYE IN NECK AND NECK RACE WITH L. B. HANNA

SEEKS REPUBLICAN SENATORIAL NOMINATION FROM NORTH DAKOTA

RETURNS ARE TRICKLING IN FROM THE RURAL SECTIONS

Bismarck, N. D., July 1.—(UP)—Gerald P. Nye, insurgent republican, bearing the endorsement of the Non-partisan League, was running a neck and neck race with L. B. Hanna, Coolidge republican, for the republican senatorial nomination from North Dakota today as returns trickled in from the rural sections.

Hanna leaped into the lead as first returns of yesterday's primary came in last night, but as hour after hour went by Nye's strength among the farmers was asserting itself and their vote became nearly even this morning. Many politicians believe the rural vote will give Nye the nomination, pointing out that Hanna's early lead was built up by the city vote, which was counted early.

Returns complete from 239 of the state's 1,267 precincts gave Hanna 12,707, Nye 10,946.

Two other candidates for the long term nomination, Normal Midtbo and C. P. Stone, were running far behind.

Nye, apponted by Governor A. G. Sorlie to fill the unexpired term of Senator E. F. Ladd, is only 33 years of age, and with the exception of Robert M. LaFollette, the youngest man in the upper house of congress. He was a North Dakota newspaper editor before his appointment and has come to be known as "the boy editor."

During Nye's term in the senate, he was allied with the LaFollette-Brookhart insurgents, and has been a supporter of farm relief measures. In the present vote contest he is seeking his party's nomination both for the remainder of Senator Ladd's term of office and for the long term that is to follow. The vote in both contests run about parallel, although the short term votes are lighter.

Hanna was northwest campaign manager for President Coolidge in 1924 and his name in North Dakota has always been associated with conservative administration policies.

In the gubernatorial contest, Governor Sorlie was running behind J. M. Hanley, Coolidge republican candidate, but here also it was found that Sorlie was picking up strength from the rural districts while the conservative standard bearer was slowly losing his lead. The vote from 192 precincts gave Hanley 11,036, Sorlie 9,708.

Hanna held persistently to his lead during the early morning and returns from 274 precincts showed he was drawing away from Nye. The figures at this stage were: Hanna, 16,538; Nye, 11,676.

Fargo, N. D., July 1—A statement today by L. B. Hanna, Coolidge republican candidate for the republican senatorial nomination, virtually conceded his defeat in Wednesday's primary and special elections.

Hanna said that if the returns which showed he was leading by a small margin in the city vote were correct, Gerald P. Nye has been returned to the senate to finish the short term and nominated as the republican candidate for the long term.

This admission followed the Fargo Forum's prediction that Nye and Governor A. G. Sorlie have been named the republican nominees for senator and governor respectively. The forum supported Hanna and James Hanley, regular republicans.

SENATE TO PROBE SO-CALLED BREAD TRUST MATTER

Washington, July 1.—(UP)—The senate today moved to investigate the so-called bread trust case.

A resolution by Senator Walsh, democrat, Montana, requesting the judiciary committee to ascertain what the Federal Trade commission and the department of justice have done about reported monopolies to control bread was adopted.

"I think we ought to find out if the dissenting opinion of minority members of the trade commission, charging fraud in the case of the Continental Baking company is true or false," Walsh said.

Baraboo, Wis., July 1.—(UP)—Robbers for the second time within three months blew the vault in the post office here last night and escaped with $30,000 in stamps, according to an estimate by the postmaster.

Three months ago the post office was robbed of $900 in stamps.

DURKIN IS ANXIOUS TO TELL HIS STORY

CHICAGO SHEIK GUNMAN WANTS TO TESTIFY IN HIS OWN DEFENSE

SAYS "THEY'VE BEEN TELLING SWELL LOT OF YARNS ON ME"

Chicago, July 1.—(UP)—Martin Durkin, on trial for the murder of Federal Agent Edwin C. Shanahan, waited impatiently today for a chance to testify in his own defense, a chance he is expected to have before court closes today.

"A swell lot of yarns they've been telling on me," Durkin commented, referring to the eye witness versions of the Shanahan slaying as told from the witness stand in testimony introduced by the state.

"But wait until I get up there," he went on, interspersing his sentences with nervous gestures and winks of his keen eyes. "Wait until they hear me. I'll shoot some holes in those so-called eye witness stories, I'll give those no account liars something to think about."

The state was near the end of its case against Durkin when court opened this morning. Only a few minor witnesses remained to testify and by noon the defense is expected to start. Durkin's attorneys have indicated they will call the spectacular gunman as witness in his own defense early in their case, probably before night.

ACCEPTS DARE AND DROWNS IN RIVER

St. Cloud, Minn., July 1—(UP)—Beda Willenbring, 21, accepted a dare to go swimming, dived into the Sauk river, near Richmond, and drowned before he could be rescued, it was learned today.

Ray Ries, a companion, dived frantically after the young man and was almost drowned himself, but broke the death hold Willenbring had. However, Ries was too exhausted to save Willenbring.

Ries said that although Willenbring could not swim, the latter dived into the river to "show he was game." The body was found two hours later, lodged in the river.

SENATE PRIMARY PROBERS ADJOURN TO CHICAGO SOON

IN 3 WEEKS TO BEGIN INVESTIGATION OF ILLINOIS PRIMARY ELECTION

LOOSE ANGLES IN THE PENNSYLVANIA AFFAIR CLEANED UP BY SATURDAY

By PAUL R. MALLON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, July 1.—The senate primary investigating committee will wind up its inquiry into politics here Saturday and adjourn to meet in Chicago in about three weeks to begin an investigation into the Illinois primary.

This plan was officially formulated by the committee today after leaders of both houses had arranged definitely for adjournment of congress on Saturday.

From now until Saturday, the committee will center its attention on cleaning up loose angles of the case already developed in connection with the $3,000,000 Pennsylvania senatorial race and the financing of wet and dry organizations. In Chicago it will sift charges that some $3,000,000 was spent by two republican senatorial candidates there and that doubtful financing was indulged in.

Charles Wood, head of the Pennsylvania State Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, and John T. Flood, head of another wet organization, were summoned by the committee this morning in connection with the statement of William H. Stayton, founder of the association, that only $3,500 was spent by the wets to further the candidacy of William S. Vare, wet, who won the republican senatorial nomination.

Stayton will re recalled with Wayne B. Wheleer, legislative agent of the Anti-Saloon League, to tell further details of financing of their respective organizations.

Washington, July 1—Wets collected between $1,400 and $1,500 in Pennsylvania to finance their drive for a prohibition referendum in Montana and Nevada, Charles S. Wood, national campaign manager for the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, today told the senate primary investigating committee.

Wood said that a few members of his organization formed a voluntary committee to raise money in the drive for referendum prohibition.

About $1,200 of the amount already has been appropriated by the committee and is being used in the states designated, he said.

Wood, whose home is in Delaware county, said his organization had rased $2,000 in March and $5,338.89 in April for political purposes. Nearly $2,000 of the sum was sent to the national organization to hold mass meetings.

Wood submitted the following list of expenditures for the Pennsylvania group: February $1,987.77, March $2,143.87, April $534.24, May $5,894.11 and June 1 to 16 $3,205.17.

This would make the total expenditures of his Pennsylvania organization $13,756.16 during the time around the Pennsylvania primary.

Francis X. O'Connor, Philadelphia city magistrate, who came down to Washington today after a special deputy sergeant-at-arms had been sent for him, was next called.

John J. McGrain, the deputy, reported to the committee that he was unable to find Thomas F. Cunningham, former treasurer of the republican state committee, for whom a subpoena was issued ten days ago. He said he left Philadelphia at 7 A. M. today after a futile search for the missing witness.

O'Connor was recalled in connection with a story in Philadelphia newspapers, quoting him as saying the Wiliam S. Vare organization offered him $150,000 to withdraw from the congressional race in South Philadelphia. He denied the story on a previous appearance but three Philadelphia newspapermen later swore he made the statement.

Questioned by Reed, O'Connor again denied he made the statement.

Washington, July 1.—The worst corruption in the history of the world has been revealed in the Pennsylvania primary campaign fund investigation, Senator Neely, democrat, West Virginia, charged in the senate today.

"There is nothing to be found in all the voluminous records of political weakness and wickedness of mankind to equal the admitted debauchery, the revealed infamies and the proved iniquity of the republican primary election in Pennsylvania on May 18," he said.

MOONSHINE OF WISCONSIN WOODS IS MOST POWERFUL

Superior, Wis., July 1.—(UP)—The "moonshine" made up in the woods of northern Wisconsin is sure enough powerful stuff, according to members of the Superior police department.

One policeman was presented by a city jail inmate with a bottle of supposed corn whisky, which was discovered to be moonshine.

The officer did not drink it, a better use, he found, in pouring it on parts of the courthouse lawn. After one application the grass withered and died.

PROHIBITION TO BE EFFECTIVE IN TWO YEARS

COSTS OF ENFORCING TO BE MATERIALLY REDUCED, SAYS ANDREWS

NOW HAS $25,000,000 AVAILABLE FOR DRY LAW ENFORCEMENT

Washington, July 1. — (UP) — Within two years prohibition will become so effective that the cost of carrying out the provisions of the Volstead law will be materially reduced, in the opinion of Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Andrews, dry czar.

Andrews has a total of more than $25,000,000 available for dry law enforcement this fiscal year. The prohibition unit will use about $11,000,000 and the coast guard around $14,000,000.

Andrews plans to add 906 dry agents to his present army, bringing the total strength to more than 4,000 agents.

Pharmacy inspectors will be detailed thus:

100 to the New York district, 25 to Buffalo, 15 to Pittsburgh, 75 to Philadelphia, 5 to Baltimore, one to Virginia, three to Kentucky, 10 to Ohio, 50 to Chicago, three to St. Paul, two to Omaha, 10 to St. Louis, three to Seattle and six to San Francisco.

'OH, FOR THE LIFE OF A FIREMAN,' SIGHS THE ICEMAN

St. Paul, July 1. — (UP)—"Oh, for the life of a fireman," sighed an iceman today as he made his weary rounds.

This same iceman while peddling his wares yesterday discovered the planking ablaze on a bridge.

DEMOCRATIC DEMAND FOR LOWER TARIFF RATES IS ATTACKED

Washington, July 1.—(UP)—The democratic demand for lower tariff rates was attacked in the house today by Chairman Green, republican, Iowa, of the ways and means committee as "virtually certain" to destroy the domestic market for farm products.

Green asserted that the democrats were just as responsible as the republicans for failure of this congress to enact farm relief legislation and he added that "neither party" was to blame for it.

COMIC OPERA, TUNEFUL MUSIC, INTERESTING PLOT

ATTENDANCE AT NEW PARK TONIGHT TO TAX THEATRE CAPACITY

STORY TAKES ONE BACK TO THE ROMANTIC DAYS OF KNIGHTHOOD

The Tooley Opera Company will present tonight, "Chimes of Normandy" at the New Park Theatre, the second last evening performance of the Chautauqua.

H. W. D. Tooley will appear in the role of Grenicheux, a fisherman. This is more or less the comedy part of the opera and the audience will not only be delighted with the splendid tenor solos such as "On Billow Rocking" and "Tho They May Not Pursue Me" that fall to Mr. Tooley's lot to sing, but will be equally delighted with the comedy that is installed into the part that has won him so much praise everywhere he has appeared in this role.

The supporting cast includes Miss Keitha Ward, who will sing Serpolette. Also in support of Mr. Tooley and Miss Ward will be Miss Camille Robinette, Miss Lola Borchers, Sascha Corado, Frederick Wheeler and Floyd Wakeland.

The scenery for the production has been painted by Gustav G. Schell and the costumes are from New York.

Thomas McGregor's Address

Another packed assemblage greeted the Chautauqua performers last night at the Park theatre, boosting the total attendance so far up to 4,000 people.

The program consisted of the lecture by Honorable Thomas McGregor, ex-attorney general of Kentucky, who delivered a strong address on "You and the Law," and the Mason Jubilee Singers who made a great hit with the audience in their presentation of plantation songs, comedy sketches, readings by negro writers, and piano selections.

Declaring that a respectable citizen who winked at the violation of any law and encouraged law violation was a greater danger to a community than a known criminal who openly violated the law, Mr. McGregor made a strong plea for each citizen to stand behind the enforcement of all laws, that they avoid making sympathetic pleas to state executives for pardons of criminals, and for each citizen to do his best to help public officials in the enforcement of the law while they are in office.

"The public must support their officials after they are in office instead of pointing the finger of scorn at them," Mr. McGregor declared. "We must have respect for our lawmakers if we are to have respect for the laws they make. With but 25 per cent of the legal voters voting in the primaries and about 50 per cent casting ballots at a regular election, is it any wonder that many poor sticks get into our legislatures and congress and public offices?"

Mr. McGregor, condemning pardons, said:

"Sentimental citizens and press weaken the respect for law by petitions for pardons and sob sister reports of criminal trials. When criminals are fully tried and sentenced by the court they should serve out their sentences. Citizens should cease sympathetic pleas for clemency to judges and state executives. Let the law take its course. The jury box is one of the most important offices of law enforcement. It is the highest duty of each citizen to serve as a juror when called, instead of finding excuses to escape his duty to his country. Good men and women must take their turn and serve as jurors if the law is to be respected and upheld and public officials encouraged to do their duty."

NEW FISCAL YEAR USHERED IN BY NATION

TREASURY BOOKS OF GOVERNMENT SHOW SURPLUS NEAR $300,000,000

HUGE SUM APPLIED TO REDUCTION OF THE PUBLIC DEBT

By JOSEPH S. WASNEY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, July 1.—A new fiscal year was ushered in by the government today with federal financial experts predicting that continuation of the prosperity wave will mean further tax reductons in the near future.

Treasury books were closed at midnight with a surplus of slightly less than $390,000,000. This huge sum was applied to reducing the public debt, which now stands at about $19,685,000,000.

A surplus of about $280,000,000 for the present year was forecast today by treasury officials. Prosperity, they pointed out, offsets the tax reduction of about $387,600,000, the expenditures for new public buildings and increased cost of enforcing the prohibition laws.

The public debt during the fiscal year was reduced $85,000,000, making a total obligation now of $19,433,000,000.

Mellon announced that the treasury today was selling $43,000,000 bank bonds back to the loan banks. These bonds, taken by the government to establish a farm loan bank system, will be re-issued to the public at 4 1-8 per cent. Moneys derived from the sale of these bonds will be placed in the treasury to stabilize the government's finances until the next tax collection period in September. This fund which became available today, made the issuing of bonds on June 15, as was customary to finance the government, unnecessary.

The government revenues last year were $3,962,775,000 and the expenditures $3,584,987,000.

The vote from 192 precincts gave Hanley 11,036, Sorlie 9,708.

Hanna held persistently to his lead during the early morning and returns from 274 precincts showed he was drawing away from Nye. The figures at this stage were: Hanna, 16,538; Nye, 11,676.

Fargo, N. D., July 1—A statement today by L. B. Hanna, Coolidge republican candidate for the republican senatorial nomination, virtually conceded his defeat in Wednesday's primary and special elections.

Hanna said that if the returns which showed he was leading by a small margin in the city vote were correct, Gerald P. Nye has been returned to the senate to finish the short term and nominated as the republican candidate for the long term.

This admission followed the Fargo Forum's prediction that Nye and Governor A. G. Sorlie have been named the republican nominees for senator and governor respectively. The forum supported Hanna and James Hanley, regular republicans.

DURKIN IS ANXIOUS TO TELL HIS STORY

CHICAGO SHEIK GUNMAN WANTS TO TESTIFY IN HIS OWN DEFENSE

SAYS "THEY'VE BEEN TELLING SWELL LOT OF YARNS ON ME"

Chicago, July 1.—(UP)—Martin Durkin, on trial for the murder of Federal Agent Edwin C. Shanahan, waited impatiently today for a chance to testify in his own defense, a chance he is expected to have before court closes today.

"A swell lot of yarns they've been telling on me," Durkin commented, referring to the eye witness versions of the Shanahan slaying as told from the witness stand in testimony introduced by the state.

"But wait until I get up there," he went on, interspersing his sentences with nervous gestures and winks of his keen eyes. "Wait until they hear me. I'll shoot some holes in those walled eye witness stories, I'll give those no account liars something to think about."

The state was near the end of its case against Durkin when court opened this morning. Only a few minor witnesses remained to testify and by noon the defense is expected to start. Durkin's attorneys have indicated they will call the spectacular gunman as witness in his own defense early in their case, probably before night.

Ries said that although Willenbring could not swim, the latter dived into the river to "show he was game." The body was found two hours later, lodged in the river.

SENATE PRIMARY PROBERS ADJOURN TO CHICAGO SOON

IN 3 WEEKS TO BEGIN INVESTIGATION OF ILLINOIS PRIMARY ELECTION

LOOSE ANGLES IN THE PENNSYLVANIA AFFAIR CLEANED UP BY SATURDAY

By PAUL R. MALLON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, July 1.—The senate primary investigating committee will wind up its inquiry into politics here Saturday and adjourn to meet in Chicago in about three weeks to begin an investigation into the Illinois primary.

This plan was officially formulated by the committee today after leaders of both houses had arranged definitely for adjournment of congress on Saturday.

From now until Saturday, the committee will center its attention on cleaning up loose angles of the case already developed in connection with the $3,000,000 Pennsylvania senatorial race and the financing of wet and dry organizations. In Chicago it will sift charges that some $3,000,000 was spent by two republican senatorial candidates there and that doubtful financing was indulged in.

Charles Wood, head of the Pennsylvania State Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, and John T. Flood, head of another wet organization, were summoned by the committee this morning in connection with the statement of William H. Stayton, founder of the association, that only $3,500 was spent by the wets to further the candidacy of William S. Vare, wet, who won the republican senatorial nomination.

Stayton will re recalled with Wayne B. Wheleer, legislative agent of the Anti-Saloon League, to tell further details of financing of their respective organizations.

Washington, July 1—Wets collected between $1,400 and $1,500 in Pennsylvania to finance their drive for a prohibition referendum in Montana and Nevada, Charles S. Wood, national campaign manager for the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, today told the senate primary investigating committee.

Wood said that a few members of his organization formed a voluntary committee to raise money in the drive for referendum prohibition.

About $1,200 of the amount already has been appropriated by the committee and is being used in the states designated, he said.

Wood, whose home is in Delaware county, said his organization had rased $2,000 in March and $5,338.89 in April for political purposes. Nearly $2,000 of the sum was sent to the national organization to hold mass meetings.

Wood submitted the following list of expenditures for the Pennsylvania group: February $1,987.77, March $2,143.87, April $534.24, May $5,894.11 and June 1 to 16 $3,205.17.

This would make the total expenditures of his Pennsylvania organization $13,756.16 during the time around the Pennsylvania primary.

Francis X. O'Connor, Philadelphia city magistrate, who came down to Washington today after a special deputy sergeant-at-arms had been sent for him, was next called.

John J. McGrain, the deputy, reported to the committee that he was unable to find Thomas F. Cunningham, former treasurer of the republican state committee, for whom a subpoena was issued ten days ago. He said he left Philadelphia at 7 A. M. today after a futile search for the missing witness.

O'Connor was recalled in connection with a story in Philadelphia newspapers, quoting him as saying the William S. Vare organization offered him $150,000 to withdraw from the congressional race in South Philadelphia. He denied the story on a previous appearance but three Philadelphia newspapermen later swore he made the statement.

Questioned by Reed, O'Connor again denied he made the statement.

Washington, July 1.—The worst corruption in the history of the world has been revealed in the Pennsylvania primary campaign fund investigation, Senator Neely, democrat, West Virginia, charged in the senate today.

"There is nothing to be found in all the voluminous records of political weakness and wickedness of mankind to equal the admitted debauchery, the revealed infamies and the proved iniquity of the republican primary election in Pennsylvania on May 18," he said.

MOONSHINE OF WISCONSIN WOODS IS MOST POWERFUL

Superior, Wis., July 1.—(UP)—The "moonshine" made up in the woods of northern Wisconsin is sure enough powerful stuff, according to members of the Superior police department.

One policeman was presented by a city jail inmate with a bottle of supposed corn whisky, which was discovered to be moonshine.

The officer did not drink it, a better use, he found, in pouring it on parts of the courthouse lawn. After one application the grass withered and died.

PROHIBITION TO BE EFFECTIVE IN TWO YEARS

COSTS OF ENFORCING TO BE MATERIALLY REDUCED, SAYS ANDREWS

NOW HAS $25,000,000 AVAILABLE FOR DRY LAW ENFORCEMENT

Washington, July 1. — (UP) — Within two years prohibition will become so effective that the cost of carrying out the provisions of the Volstead law will be materially reduced, in the opinion of Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Andrews, dry czar.

Andrews has a total of more than $25,000,000 available for dry law enforcement this fiscal year. The prohibition unit will use about $14,000,000 and the coast guard around $14,000,000.

Andrews plans to add 906 dry agents to his present army, bringing the total strength to more than 4,000 agents.

Pharmacy inspectors will be detailed thus:

100 to the New York district, 25 to Buffalo, 15 to Pittsburgh, 75 to Philadelphia, 5 to Baltimore, one to Virginia, three to Kentucky, 10 to Ohio, 50 to Chicago, three to St. Paul, two to Omaha, 10 to St. Louis, three to Seattle and six to San Francisco.

'OH, FOR THE LIFE OF A FIREMAN,' SIGHS THE ICEMAN

St. Paul, July 1. — (UP)—"Oh, for the life of a fireman," sighed an iceman today as he made his weary rounds.

This same iceman while peddling his wares yesterday discovered the planking ablaze on a bridge.

He hoisted a 100 pound cake of ice to his shoulder dashed to the scene and with the aid of two small boys, such as always follow ice wagons, broke up the ice, spread it over the planks and put out the fire.

DEMOCRATIC DEMAND FOR LOWER TARIFF RATES IS ATTACKED

Washington, July 1. — (UP) — The democratic demand for lower tariff rates was attacked in the house today by Chairman Green, republican, Iowa, of the ways and means committee as "virtually certain" to destroy the domestic market for farm products.

Green asserted that the democrats were just as responsible as the republicans for failure of this congress to enact farm relief legislation and he added that "neither party" was to blame for it.

COMIC OPERA, TUNEFUL MUSIC, INTERESTING PLOT

ATTENDANCE AT NEW PARK TONIGHT TO TAX THEATRE CAPACITY

STORY TAKES ONE BACK TO THE ROMANTIC DAYS OF KNIGHTHOOD

The Tooley Opera Company will present tonight, "Chimes of Normandy" at the New Park Theatre, the second last evening performance of the Chautauqua.

H. W. D. Tooley will appear in the role of Grenicheux, a fisherman. This is more or less the comedy part of the opera and the audience will not only be delighted with the splendid tenor solos such as "On Billow Rocking" and "Tho They May Not Pursue Me" that fall to Mr. Tooley's lot to sing, but will be equally delighted with the comedy that is installed into the part that has won him so much praise everywhere he has appeared in this role.

The supporting cast includes Miss Keitha Ward, who will sing Serpolette. Also in support of Mr. Tooley and Miss Ward will be Miss Camilla Robinette, Miss Lola Borchers, Rocha Corado, Frederick Wheeler and Floyd Wakeland.

The scenery for the production has been painted by Gustav G. Schadt and the costumes are from New York.

Thomas McGregor's Address

Another packed assemblage greeted the Chautauqua performers last night at the New Park Theatre, the total attendance so far up to 4,000 people.

The program consisted of the lecture by Honorable Thomas McGregor, ex-attorney general of Kentucky, who delivered a strong address on "You and the Law," and the Mason Jubilee Singers who made a great hit with the audience in their presentation of plantation songs, comedy sketches, readings by negro writers, and piano selections.

Declaring that a respectable citizen who winked at the violation of any law and encouraged law violation was a greater danger to a community than a known criminal who openly violated the law, Mr. McGregor made a strong plea for each citizen to stand behind the enforcement of all laws, that they avoid making sympathetic pleas to state executives for pardons of criminals, and for each citizen to do his best to help public officials in the enforcement of the law while they are in office.

"The public must support their officials after they are in office instead of pointing the finger of scorn at them," Mr. McGregor declared. "We must have respect for our lawmakers if we are to have respect for the laws they make. With but 25 per cent of the legal voters voting in the primaries and about 50 per cent casting ballots at a regular election, is it any wonder that many poor stiffs get into our legislatures and congress and public offices?"

Mr. McGregor, condemning pardons, said:

"Sentimental citizens and press weaken the respect for law by petitions for pardons and sob sister reports of criminal trials. When criminals are fully tried and sentenced by the court they should serve out their sentences. Citizens should cease sympathetic pleas for clemency to judges and state executives. Let the law take its course. The jury box is one of the most important offices of law enforcement. It is the highest duty of each citizen to serve as a juror when called, instead of finding excuses to escape his duty to his country. Good men and women must take their turn and serve as jurors if the law is to be respected and upheld and public officials encouraged to do their duty."

THE KNOT HOLE

No. 29. THURSDAY, JULY 1, 1926 Vol. 1

There's a family in this town who have three children. Next week they're going to celebrate the Fourth.

Can't you remember when a bunch of fire crackers was the height of entertainment?

A few suggestions for the children:
When you light firecrackers and they fizzle and don't explode, bend down over it and blow the fuse. This is hard on the eyes but it gets results. Tie a bunch of firecrackers to a dog's tail. It's hard on the dog but you will enjoy it. Always point the Roman candle toward your little sister. It adds to the noise and confusion and makes the day one long to be remembered.

Before we celebrate let us pause and reflect what the celebration is all about.

Did you know that 12,456,897 pounds of fish are lost every year because fishermen jerk their poles too soon?

A good index to your age—try playing ball a while with the kids.

We often wonder how the ladies of 1860 managed to keep cool in the summer time with all those superfluous clothes.

For the popular June bride—a pair of homing pigeons.

Talk is cheap until you start telling your wife how much you are worth.

C. N. Erickson of The Eagle Provision states that a new use has been found for Lux. It prevents bacon from shrinking.

Olson-Skau

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Deerwood Scandinavian Lutheran church on Wednesday evening, June 30, at 8 o'clock when Nora Henrietta Skau was united in marriage to John Andrew Olson. Rev. O. L. Bolstad, of Brainerd officiated, using the ring service.

The church was beautifully decorated with ferns, roses, peonies and colors of pink and white. The groom was attended by Leo Lee of Deerwood and Miss Mabel Lee was the bridesmaid.

The bridal party approached the altar to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Adele Coffin, while little Harriet Skau, acting as flower girl, scattered roses before the bride. Immediately before the ceremony, Miss Coffin sang "At Dawning," accompanied by Mrs. P. A. Gough at the piano.

The bride was attired in a beautiful gown of white silk canton crepe and carried a bouquet of pink roses and baby breath. The bridesmaid wore a ogwn of pink georgette and carried pink roses.

Following the pleasing ceremony at the church, a delicious wedding luncheon was served at the county home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Olson Skau on Hamlet Lake a popular summer resort in the Bay Lake region near Deerwood. A very pleasant evening was spent in conversation and the singing of a number of ol dtime songs, while Robert Archibald, one of the venerable Civil war veterans of Crow Wiag county delighted the guests with several of his popular recitations. It was past midnight when the guests departed leaving their best wishes for the future happiness of bride and groom.

The newlyweds are well and favorably known in the location where they reside. Both were born and raised in Deerwood township. The bride is a graduate of the Crosby-Ironton high school and has for some time followed the profession of teaching in the county rural schools. The groom is well known both on the range and also in Brainerd where three of his sisters reside. He has for a number of years been employed by different mining companies on the Cuyuna range. The high esteem in which they are held was indicated by the number of useful gifts with which they were presented.

After a short honeymoon trip, Mr. and Mrs. Olson will make their home in Deerwood.

Brainerd people attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Jacobson, and Arthur Peterson and family.

Thompson-Lasher

A beautiful home wedding was solemnized Wednesday evening, June 30, at 9 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Lasher of 524 Seventh Ave. N. E., when their daughter Ethel Gladys became the bride of Emil C. Thompson, the son of Mrs. Emma Thompson.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. H. Bollens of the Bethlehem Evangelical church. They were attended by an aunt and uncle of the bride, Miss Violet Monteney being the bridesmaid and Jesse Monteney of St. Paul was the best man.

The bride wore a gown of Bois de Rose crepe de chene and wore a corsage bouquet of pink roses and baby breath. The bridesmaid wore a gown of green French crepe and wore a corsage bouquet of pink roses and lilies of the valley.

Following the ceremony a delicious two course luncheon was served to relatives and close friends. The bride received many beautiful and useful gifts.

The bride has lived in Brainerd since childhood and the groom was born and raised in the city and is employed at the N. P. shops. They both have a large circle of friends and after a trip to Chicago and other eastern points the happy couple will make their home in Brainerd.

THE KNOT HOLE

No. 29. THURSDAY, JULY 1, 1926 Vol. 1

There's a family in this town who have three children. Next week they're going to celebrate the Fourth.

Can't you remember when a bunch of fire crackers was the height of entertainment?

A few suggestions for the children:

When you light firecrackers and they fizzle and don't explode, bend down over it and blow the fuse. This is hard on the eyes but it gets results. Tie a bunch of firecrackers to a dog's tail. It's hard on the dog but you will enjoy it. Always point the Roman candle toward your little sister. It adds to the noise and confusion and makes the day one long to be remembered.

Before we celebrate let us pause and reflect what the celebration is all about.

Did you know that 12,456,897 pounds of fish are lost every year because fishermen jerk their poles too soon?

A good index to your age—try playing ball a while with the kids.

We often wonder how the ladies of 1860 managed to keep cool in the summer time with all those superfluous clothes.

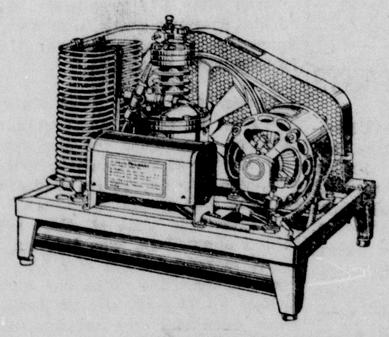

For the popular June bride—a pair of homing pigeons.

Talk is cheap until you start telling your wife how much you are worth.

C. N. Erickson of The Eagle Provision states that a new use has been found for Lux. It prevents bacon from shrinking.

Little Visits

Around the Rural Section

Written especially for the Dispatch by W. H. Triplett, travelling editor for this paper and The Farmer of St. Paul.

The old saying "it takes all sorts of people to make up the world" is true, for this morning the first farmer visited objected to a little publicity. From the appearance of the place he is evidently successful.

We then called on P. M. Blake who hauls cream for the Co-operative creamery. He formerly lived in Des Moines, Ia., where he acted as janitor of one of the public schools. Last winter he moved back on his farm which consists of 80 acres, and besides farming on a small scale hauls cream as we mentioned before.

The Caughey Brothers are running the old home place which consists of 320 acres. They are milking 15 cows of mixed breed, one of which is for sale and is T. B. tested. The small grain looks good but needs rain in order to fill out as it should.

Geo. Darling is renting 160 acres and has farmed the same for the past three years. The place is surrounded by jack-pines which give protection both winter and summer. He formerly lived in Minneapolis, working there three years, but says he likes farm life much better than the city, and I agree with him after living there six years myself; for on the farm one is always assured of a good living even though he does not make a fortune.

The writer has seen some mighty fine patches of potatoes the last few days and I believe Ed. Tugas has one of the best fields in the community. They are remodeling the barn, and when completed it will be more convenient and give them more room than at present. A silo was built last year and Mr. Tugas remarked that he sure can see a difference in the amount of milk given and the amount of hay saved. At present they are milking 12 cows of mixed breed but are working toward a Holstein herd. His son Morris has a dandy Shetland pony three weeks old that would make any boy or girl tease for it until they got it, and I wouldn't blame them for if I were as young as I once was I would tease for it myself. This pony is for sale and any one who can persuade Dad to buy it will be lucky.

Albert Anderson is one of our early settlers in this community, having farmed 80 acres for the past 22 years. He was busy making hay when we called this afternoon. Haymaking seems to be the major job in this community at the present time.

Paul Henningson is enjoying a visit with his brother-in-law and family, I. M. Valde, who are from Oregon. Mr. Valde reports that the crops look pretty good in Oregon, as they should in an irrigated country. Mr. Henningson has farmed 160 acres for 28 years and milks a number of cows that help to utilize the crops raised on the farm.

Charles Curtis, Herman Wohlfater and Carl Wheeler were not at home this afternoon, but we will be back within a few days to make our little visit.

John Stedtfeld formerly lived at ShadyPoint, buying Herman Wohlfater's farm which was homesteaded over 42 years ago, this spring. Mr. Stedtfeld has a very good piece of land and within a few years will have a new farmstead built up and a home that will be hard to beat. There is a nice orchard on the place to supply them with fruit. For anyone who is short of pasture, it will pay him to see Mr. Stedtfeld as he has 80 acres of good pasture, plenty of fresh water that will accomodate about 20 head of stock, and can be rented very reasonably.

Eugene Gorren was one of our pill rollers in the army, spending 11 months overseas with the 93rd Base Hospital. He formerly lived in Billings, Mont., coming to Minnesota six years ago. He now has 240 acres to keep him busy during the day and nine cows to keep him out of mischief morning and night. If it were not for the dry spring he would have a real good job putting up the 120 acres of tame hay.

S. F. Brown has seen lots of country farming in Dakota, Minnesota and working in Minneapolis; he has farmed 80 acres for the past ten years and is getting along first rate. Mrs. Brown has a large flock of White Leghorns that should keep them well supplied with groceries.

Monta Bell Has Produced "Ibanez' Torrent" on Big Scale

Perhaps the most elaborate settings ever constructed for grand opera, including "Carmen" as produced with several hundred singers and a fifty-piece orchestra, have been made for incidental scenes of a motion picture.

These are the operatic scenes in the new Monta Bell production "Ibanez' Torrent," now showing at the Lyceum theatre, in which Ricardo Cortez, Greta Garbo and a huge cast are featured in the fiery story of Spain from the pen of Vicente Blasco Ibanez.

WE DO NOT BELIEVE THIS IMPUTATION

THE other day Davis J. Walsh, sports editor of International News Service, had an article in the press saying Walter Hagen was being panned because he has a habit of snubbing his hosts and that he had hurt the feelings of the English. As a story it makes quite a furore, but we believe that Walsh has the wrong angle on Mr. Hagen.

As proof of Mr. Hagen's forgetfulness in social matters, Walsh cites that friends gave a farewell luncheon for Hagen on the Aquitania and Hagen arrived when all the guests except one had left the luncheon table. Hagen admitted he was late for the function. And then a New York sport critic said he had three dates to play golf with Hagen, and three times Hagen missed connections. Then Walsh says a great uproar has resulted in England because Hagen is asserted to have said that the British were "too gosh darned lazy" to play good golf. Probably the afternoon tea drinking interfered with the program.

Well, so much for Mr. Walsh's story. But we believe he has the wrong angle on Mr. Hagen. The great golfer visited Brainerd and Breezy Point last year, and at the latter place played to the biggest gallery in this section of the Northwest, more people being at the lodge to see him play and following him from tee to tee than Duluth, Fargo or even Minneapolis could muster.

Mr. Hagen was courtesy and kindness personified in the biggest letters. He received THE BRAINERD DISPATCH man with real interest and gave us a splendid story. He shook hands and conversed with the many Brainerd people, members of the Brainerd Country club, who had played on his links at St. Petersburg, Florida. At the dinner dance he danced with all the Brainerd girls and matrons. He was a rare man to meet. We believe Mr. Walsh's whole story does not reflect the true nature of Walter Hagen. Mr. Hagen is too much of a gentleman, as he showed himself in our Brainerd Lake region, to ever give offense to any one.

SUCH IDLE VAPORINGS

THE St. Cloud Daily Times takes up a lot of good space in its editorial columns figuring how Judge Himsl is to win the congressional seat in the sixth district, defeating Harold Knutson. Such idle vaporings and such a loss of time in useless figuring.

Harold Knutson will be re-elected. His wonderful primary run is only an indication of what he will do in the general election. Judge Himsl is a well known probate judge of Stearns county, but he is out of class when he enters a political campaign where our Harold occupies the other corner.

The primary election never records as complete or heavy a vote as does a general election.

The Times asserts that "the probable failure of the Republican administration to do anything adequate in the way of farm relief is going to have its effect in the general election and will react to some extent upon the candidates of that party, regardless of their individual support of farm relief."

Knutson, in spite of what the party did, worked in harmony with the other Republican congressmen of Minnesota and they were instrumental in securing the increase in tariff on butter. Knutson has worked for the interests of the sixth district, agriculture, dairying, granite industry, lumbering, the Indians, the ex-service men, veterans of all wars, pensioners, rural routes, mail extensions, adequate water levels, conservation of fish, game and other wild life, etc., etc.

If Knutson were a dead issue, or crippled by rheumatism, or blind, or 80 years old, or a nonentity in his party, we would say, "Let's get another congressman." But where he is alive, on the job and working every minute for the sixth district and actually doing something for us, we say: "What's the use of a change? Re-elect Harold Knutson."

It really comes with ill grace on the part of St. Cloud, for which Harold Knutson secured that wonderful soldier hospital, to have one of its citizens entering the congressional race against him.

A FRIENDSHIP-TRADE TOUR

SOME time ago Banker A. S. Peterson broached the subject of a trade tour to southern Minnesota and Iowa to stir up interest in our agricultural lands. It is a good idea and was referred to a committee and is being worked out into practical lines.

John H. Krekelberg, in the meantime, has suggested something that can be started quickly and will not require so much preparation and it will serve to give the merchants a taste of what the bigger trade tour means. Mr. Krekelberg suggests that Brainerd merchants put on a friendship-trade tour to towns, communities and summer resorts of Crow Wing county. The band, that means any one of our three capable bands, should be taken along, for music always attracts attention.

Goodhue county recently staged a most successful tour. They had their band in the motor tour, a float or two filled with pretty girls and then the large delegation of representative merchants. They visited half a dozen towns.

Brainerd trade lines extend to every town, community, lake resorts of the whole county. Every man, woman or child has business at some time or other at the county seat. You pay your real estate and personal property taxes at the county seat. Vital statistics of the county are recorded here. The district court meets here. The circus and the Chautauqua come to Brainerd. Two movie theatres cater to your aesthetic nature.

Stores of all kinds satisfy your material wants. The county officers have their headquarters here at the court house. The road maintenance man reports to the headquarters here.

It's only fair that the merchants of Brainerd recognize the rest of the county, start out on a tour and visit some of the cities, towns, communities, resorts, big farms, etc., in our neighborhood. To do a thorough job of visiting will really require several tours.

Our new mayor, Frank E. Little, has expressed himself heartily in favor of the plan. As local manager of the Northwestern Oil company, he covers most of Crow Wing county and knows the value of extending Brainerd business.

It's only when we do our best that we can get any joy out of work, says the Park Rapids Enterprise.

NATIONAL business continues sound.

July 1, 1901

Conductor Day who runs from here to Morris will remove his family to Brainerd this week from Minneapolis.

Dr. O. T. Batcheller left this noon for Madelia, Minn., where he has been called on account of the illness of his sister.

Mrs. J. F. Russell left today for Detroit, Mich., where she will visit her husband, the genial Northern Pacific car inspector.

Geo. E. Kreatz, the Brainerd building contractor and former builder of St. Cloud, came down yesterday and bought some iron of the St. Cloud Iron works. He reports Brainerd as is a prosperous condition and the Daily Dispatch a decided winner.—St. Cloud Journal Press.

Mrs. Mose Derocher returned today from Little Falls where she has been visiting friends.

James Mahoney overslept on the train coming from St. Cloud last night and instead of getting off at Staples went on through to Winnipeg and the baseball boys have the laugh on him.

Mrs. W. H. Crowell returned from Duluth, Saturday night where she has been visiting for some time. Mrs. Edith McTague and little daughter returned with Mrs. Crowell. They will visit in the city for some time with Mrs. McTague's mother Mrs. J. S. Gardner.

There was a game of baseball this morning between the High Fliers and the Junior Hawks, the former winning by a score of 16 to 9. The game was witnessed by quite a large crowd of the younger boys of the city and the excitement was intense. The battery for the High Fliers was F. Cunnigham, Jim Alderman, and G. Barron. For the Juniors, Chas. Horn and H. Paine.

Yesterday afternoon Geo. Grewcox and George D. LaBar rode out to Gull Lake on their wheels. The trip was a pleasant one with the exception of the time they took in getting over trees blown over the road during the recent storm.

Post Office inspector H. E. Thiele of St. Paul arrived in the city yesterday and today he is conferring with Postmaster Ingersoll regarding the free delivery soon to be inaugerated in this city.

NAVY RECRUITER SPINS SEA YARN

Tells of Visit the Yankee Tars Made to Australia Recently

MELBOURNE PAPER EDITORIAL

"The Pictorial" Pays a Fine Tribute to American Sailor Man

L. W. Robbins, local navy recruiter in telling of a visit to Australia states that Australia comes closest to being like the United States than any country he has visited.

The following is a clipping from a Melbourne, Australia, newspaper, The Pictorial:

"As We Find the American Sailors."

"These are the real sailors and Americans. They are men from all over the States, from the wild west, from the proud south, from the mushroom town of the prairie, from Main street and Broadway. Most of them are too young to have lost by their travel, or by their life in the Navy, the ways and characteristics of their folks at home.

"So in them we are getting the American as he is, and most of us feel like tendering him an apology for what we thought he would be like.

"He does not talk loudly through his nose. He does not chew gum with ceaseless jaws and spit tobacco juice. He does not carry a six shooter or a vocabulary of picturesque oaths. He does not talk about the wonders of America unless we question him directly, and even then he does not seem to see the opportunities for making bragging comparisons. He is not self assertive, but, rather shy and modest, far more interested and curious about Australia than talkative about his own country.

"With money in his pocket, and the liberty of the town, and of course, the novel temptation of the open public house, his behaviour about the city has been excellent. When we recall what happens, according to the cinema, when a dozen American cowboys visit the nearest town with a drinking saloon, it is hard to believe there is more than 12,000 American sailors let loose in Melbourne.

"So we are making a radical adjustment of our ideas and we are getting a very valuable lesson in the value of personal contact between people of different nations.

"The American that we imagined was compounded of impressions drawn from the exaggerations of the stage, the cinema, and from the caricature in fiction. The parts that were strange and jarring to our minds bulked largely in our eyes until we had created for ourselves a creature which embodied our instinctive dislikes for the foreigner. This is where most international impressions go astray.

"The crude comic figure has disappeared since we have met the real people. We find them friendly, modest, natural folk, very sensible that the world is wide, that there are other ways of doing things besides their own, most anxious to know and understand us, and almost bewildered by warmth of their welcome in Australia.

"And, no doubt, they themselves are correcting many wrong preconceptions. They will take away, as they will leave, food for thought and talk. The result of this visit cannot but be a far better understanding and a real friendship founded on mutual knowledge. The Pacific will be a narrower sea, because to cross it is but to come among people with the same thoughts, the same habits and ideals."

Saintly Appearance

In the Kitchen with 6 Famous Cooks

EASY MEALS FOR HOT WEATHER

(Editor's Note: This is one article in an unusual cooking series contributed to this paper by six famous cooks.)

Where is the woman who enjoys cooking hearty meals in hot weather? We doubt if such a woman exists. She may cook big meals because some members of her family who toil hard demand them, but certainly not because she herself derives any real pleasure from hot weather cooking.

MISS ROSA MICHAELIS

With a little planning and forethought, however, many of the discomforts of cooking in hot weather can be avoided. For instance, as Miss Rosa Michaelis, New Orleans domestic science specialist, points out, an oil stove is much easier to work with than a coal or wood range.

"It is much more convenient," she says. "It needs no flues," and hence may be taken to the coolest part of the house easily, as it is not very heavy.

Just a Little Planning

"The woman who gets her kitchen work done early in the morning, and most of her food prepared," continues Miss Michaelis, "is the coolest cook. She just needs to do a little simple planning.

"The fewer roasts and baked dishes in the summer, the cooler the kitchen. I recommend uncooked desserts mostly, too. Fruits are all one needs during the hot weather."

In the summer time Miss Michaelis does as much of her cooking as possible on the top of the stove, using only as many burners as are absolutely necessary.

"If a woman feels she has to bake," Miss Michaelis says, "she should not use her oven every day in the week during hot weather, but bake enough to last several days or a week."

A dinner which Miss Michaelis recommends as particularly easy to prepare in hot weather is all cooked in one pot. It conserves utensils, time and fuel.

A Dinner in One Kettle

To prepare it, take a soup pot filled with enough water to cover three pounds of brisket. Season with salt. After the soup has boiled for an hour, lower the flame and let it simmer for half an hour. Add one bunch of carrots, a bunch of turnips and a pound of potatoes, and cook for another half hour.

When ready, take out carrots. Dice and sprinkle with chopped parsley. Take out turnips and mash with butter, adding a teaspoon of sugar if desired.

Serve potatoes mashed. Take out meat and fry with onions, or serve with a tomato sauce.

Add a Salad and Dessert

Now with a salad, dessert, and beverage, one has a complete meal, including soup, and all cooked on one flame!

For salad, Miss Michaelis suggests pears halved, on lettuce leaves, covered with French dressing. Fruit makes a good dessert to accompany this easy meal.

Another Easy Meal

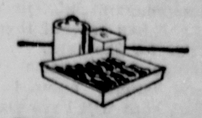

Mrs. Sarah Tyson Rorer, the famous Philadelphia cooking expert, gives the menu for a simple meal which takes but an hour to prepare. It's a vegetable dinner. Mrs. Rorer gives proportions for serving four.

Fried squash
Dutched cabbage
Chili sauce
Candied sweet potatoes
Panned apples
Watermelon

"Go to the kitchen at 11 o'clock, if dinner is to be served at 12," says Mrs. Rorer. "If you use oil, your stove is ready for immediate use. Light two burners, and put on two saucepans half full of water. Cover, and turn to full heat.

"Wash five medium sized sweet potatoes. Chop fine one small, hard head of cabbage. The water is now boiling in both pans. Put the potatoes in one and cover. Add a teaspoon of salt to the other, and put in the cabbage. Turn flame down and cook cabbage uncovered for half an hour.

"Slice three tart apples in a baking dish. Add half a cup of sugar, and partly cover with water. Light oven burner, and after three minutes put apples on upper rack, covering the dish.

To Candy the Sweets

"The sweet potatoes are now tender. Drain, peel, and cut them in halves. Place in shallow baking pan, adding two tablespoons of butter, four of sugar, and four of water. Put pan in oven under the apples.

"Put four tablespoons of cooking fat in a shallow frying pan over one burner. Drain cabbage and return to saucepan. Add a tablespoon of butter, three of vinegar, half a teaspoon of salt, and a dash of pepper. Cover to keep warm.

"Fry the squash and drain on brown paper. Turn the sweet potatoes. Take out the apples. Dish the squash. Dish the cabbage and sweet potatoes. Turn out all the burners.

"This is a very simple meal to prepare," Mrs. Rorer concludes. "And, even though you do use the oven, it is for such a short time that the kitchen does not become excessively heated."

If you take the advice of famous cooks, you will keep your summer cooking as simple as possible. It doesn't pay to work too hard in the kitchen in hot weather.

A Cool Kitchen all summer long!

Take a tip from the six famous cooks who tested Perfection.

Be cool!

Hot days are coming! Escape sizzling kitchens and wood or coal drudgery. Six famous cooks recommend the Perfection for cool cooking. Here's what they say.

"THE food gets all the heat—the kitchen none," says Miss Rosa Michaelis, New Orleans cooking expert. "In the Perfection burner," she explains, "the heat is confined directly to the bottom of the cooking pot. That means cool cooking!"

Mrs. Belle DeGraf, the San Francisco authority, suggests Perfection "top stove" cooking for hot summer days.

Least Time, Least Heat

"When I fried chicken, glazed sweet potatoes and boiled pineapple pudding," she relates, "I used only the top of the Perfection. The food cooked quickly and efficiently—and of course, the shorter the cooking time, the cooler the kitchen." That means cool cooking.

"Yes, and remember," adds Mrs. Kate B. Vaughn, famous Los Angeles Home Economist, "the least fire in your stove through the day, the cooler the kitchen. With Perfections no time is lost in heat generation because cooking begins with the touch of a match to the wick."

No Hot Extra Work

"Then, too, the Perfection saves a world of extra work," says Mrs. Sarah Tyson Rorer, pioneer cooking specialist of Philadelphia, "no wood or coal to carry in nor ashes to carry out."

At Battle Creek College of Home Economics, the nutrition expert, Margaret Allen Hall, speaks of still another "no extra work" point.

"The Perfection," says Miss Hall, "is easily moved from one room to another. Move it to the summer kitchen, out on the back porch—wherever it's coolest. You don't need to bake yourself while cooking meals."

Cool to Work With

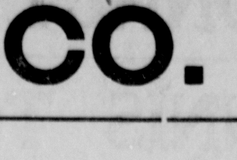

The "single row" arrangement of Perfection burners gives you another advantage. Miss Lucy G. Allen of the Boston School of Cookery notices this.

"With the Perfection," she makes clear, "there is no reaching across hot flames as with a gas or coal range. You stay away from the direct heat, yourself."

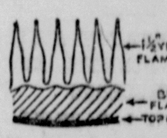

Escape Sizzling Kitchens

You can escape all those things that make summer cooking the most unpleasant of hot tasks. Your dealer will show you the Perfection today—from the one-burner model at $7.25 to the five-burner range at $130. Six famous cooks tested this stove thoroughly and now pronounce it ideal for hot weather. "Buy a Perfection," they say, "be cool!"

NAVY RECRUITER SPINS SEA YARN

Tells of Visit the Yankee Tars Made to Australia Recently

MELBOURNE PAPER EDITORIAL

"The Pictorial" Pays a Fine Tribute to American Sailor Man

L. W. Robbins, local navy recruiter in telling of a visit to Australia states that Australia comes closest to being like the United States than any country he has visited.

The following is a clipping from a Melbourne, Australia, newspaper, The Pictorial:

"As We Find the American Sailors."

"These are the real sailors and Americans. They are men from all over the States, from the wild west, from the proud south, from the mushroom town of the prairie, from Main street and Broadway. Most of them are too young to have lost by their travel, or by their life in the Navy, the ways and characteristics of their folks at home.

"So in them we are getting the American as he is, and most of us feel like tendering him an apology for what we thought he would be like.

"He does not talk loudly through his nose. He does not chew gum with ceaseless jaws and spit tobacco juice. He does not carry a six shooter or a vocabulary of picturesque oaths. He does not talk about the wonders of America unless we question him directly, and even then he does not seem to see the opportunities for making bragging comparisons. He is not self assertive, but, rather shy and modest, far more interested and curious about Australia than talkative about his own country.

"With money in his pocket, and the liberty of the town, and of course, the novel temptation of the open public house, his behaviour about the city has been excellent. When we recall what happens, according to the cinema, when a dozen American cowboys visit the nearest town with a drinking saloon, it is hard to believe there is more than 12,000 American sailors let loose in Melbourne.

"So we are making a radical adjustment of our ideas and we are getting a very valuable lesson in the value of personal contact between people of different nations.

"The American that we imagined was compounded of impressions drawn from the exaggerations of the stage, the cinema, and from the caricature in fiction. The parts that were strange and jarring to our minds bulked largely in our eyes until we had created for ourselves a creature which embodied our instinctive dislikes for the foreigner. This is where most international impressions go astray.

"The crude comic figure has disappeared since we have met the real people. We find them friendly, modest, natural folk, very sensible that the world is wide, that there are other ways of doing things besides their own, most anxious to know and understand us, and almost bewildered by warmth of their welcome in Australia.

"And, no doubt, they themselves are correcting many wrong preconceptions. They will take away, as they will leave, food for thought and talk. The result of this visit cannot but be a far better understanding and a real friendship founded on mutual knowledge. The Pacific will be a narrower sea, because to cross it is but to come among people with the same thoughts, the same habits and ideals."

EASY MEALS FOR HOT WEATHER

(Editor's Note: This is one article in an unusual cooking series contributed to this paper by six famous cooks.)

Where is the woman who enjoys cooking hearty meals in hot weather? We doubt if such a woman exists. She may cook big meals because some members of her family who toil hard demand them, but certainly not because she herself derives any real pleasure from hot weather cooking.

MISS ROSA MICHAELIS

With a little planning and forethought, however, many of the discomforts of cooking in hot weather can be avoided. For instance, as Miss Rosa Michaelis, New Orleans domestic science specialist, points out, an oil stove is much easier to work with than a coal or wood range.

"It is much more convenient," she says. "It needs no flues," and hence may be taken to the coolest part of the house easily, as it is not very heavy.

Just a Little Planning

"The woman who gets her kitchen work done early in the morning, and most of her food prepared," continues Miss Michaelis, "is the coolest cook. She just needs to do a little simple planning.

"The fewer roasts and baked dishes in the summer, the cooler the kitchen. I recommend uncooked desserts mostly, too. Fruits are all one needs during the hot weather."

In the summer time Miss Michaelis does as much of her cooking as possible on the top of the stove, using only as many burners as are absolutely necessary.

"If a woman feels she has to bake," Miss Michaelis says, "she should not use her oven every day in the week during hot weather, but bake enough to last several days or a week."

A dinner which Miss Michaelis recommends as particularly easy to prepare in hot weather is all cooked in one pot. It conserves utensils, time and fuel.

A Dinner in One Kettle

To prepare it, take a soup pot filled with enough water to cover three pounds of brisket. Season with salt. After the soup has boiled for an hour, lower the flame and let it simmer for half an hour. Add one bunch of carrots, a bunch of turnips and a pound of potatoes, and cook for another half hour.

When ready, take out carrots. Dice and sprinkle with chopped parsley. Take out turnips and mash with butter, adding a teaspoon of sugar if desired.

Serve potatoes mashed. Take out meat and fry with onions, or serve with a tomato sauce.

Add a Salad and Dessert

Now with a salad, dessert, and beverage, one has a complete meal, including soup, and all cooked on one flame!

For salad, Miss Michaelis suggests pears halved, on lettuce leaves, covered with French dressing. Fruit makes a good dessert to accompany this easy meal.

HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMPIONSHIP FIGHT FOR MID-SEPTEMBER

BOTH TO START TRAINING IN EARNEST BY JULY 18, REPORTED

By PAUL W. WHITE
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, July 1.—Tex Rickard has sent word to his prize packages, Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney, that he was quite serious when he told the New York state athletic commission he would hold a heavyweight championship fight in mid-September, and has ordered them to get into shape for the bout.

An exchange of telegrams with Dempsey and Tunney assured the promoter that both will have started training in earnest by July 18, and there remains only the question of where the bout will be held.

Although Boyle's Thirty Acres at Jersey City remains the most probable site, Rickard will make no announcement before his return from Chicago, where he planned to go today.

While there Rickard plans to divulge the identity of the Chicago promoters who are bidding for the bout. It is known that a syndicate has been formed with adequate financial backing to hold the affair in the new municipal stadium, where it might draw a gate close to $2,000,000.

COLORS OF BRADLEY BROOD FLUTTER CHALLENGE

ARISTOCRATS OF TURF AT NEW WASHINGTON PARK RACE

$100,000 PURSE OFFERED, RICHEST EVER COMPETED FOR IN AMERICA

By BERT M. DENBY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Chicago, July 1.—The colors of the Bradley brood, aristocrats of the turf, will flutter a challenge from the barrier of the new Washington park race track Saturday, July 10, when the famous American Derby is revived in Chicago with a $100,000 purse, the richest ever offered in America.

Bubbling Over and Bagenbaggage, who placed one-two for the stables of Colonel Edward Bradley in the Kentucky derby are on the entry lists and demanding a great deal of favor among the dopesters, since the stable announcement that Carlaris, winner of the Tiajuana derby and Coffroth handicap is a doubtful starter.

Carlaris suffered an injured leg shortly before the Kentucky derby and may not be fit for the Washington park classic, according to word from W. T. Anderson, owner.

Formidable opposition to the Bradley stars is seen in Haste, who nosed out Bagenbaggage in a break neck finish in the Fairmount derby.

William Woodard of Lexington, Ky., Bradley's representative, is at the track and declares the plant to be one of the best laid out in the country. He said that Bradley will have 10 of his fastest thoroughbreds at the opening.

It is predicted that 700 horses will be on the grounds when the bugles call out the starters in the first race Saturday.

The entire turf world is watching the opening of the Washington park track with extreme interest in view of State's Attorney Crowe's threat to interfere with pari mutuel or certificate booth betting. The Illinois Jockey club, sponsors of the new track, one of the most expensive and elaborate ever built, plan to operate pari mutuel machines for the convenience of the betting turf fans and to resort to certificate books, a deviation of the machines, if necessary. Crowe claims both are illegal under the Illinois statutes, however, and has promised "necessary action."

The Jockey club, according to its president, Robert Sweitzer, a political foe of Crowe's, will make a test case of the affair, resorting to an injunction restraining the state's attorney from interfering. The outcome is expected to determine to a large extent the future of horse racing in the Chicago area.

Pitcher Joe Bush to Join Pittsburgh Team

Pittsburgh, Pa., July 1.—Pitcher Joe Bush, recently released by the Washington American League club, signed a contract with the Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday and will join the Pirate squad Friday or Saturday. The terms of his contract were not announced.

PLANS FOR TOURNAMENT BEING SHAPED

24 ENTRIES ARE RECORDED FOR THE MIXED DOUBLES EVENT

BOYS' DOUBLES ALSO ARE EXPECTED TO PROVE POPULAR

Plans for the local tennis tournament which is to be held at Gregory Park July Fourth, are progressing rapidly.

There are about 24 entries for the mixed doubles, included being: Marguerite Carmichael and Floyd Nelson; Miriam Michael and Dr. M. H. Carlson; Catherine Cleary and Lawrence Erickson; Mrs. A. C. Weber and Wallace Anderson.

For the boy's doubles the following are expected to take part: Lawrence Erickson and Floyd Nelson vs. Wallace Anderson and Dr. M. H. Carlson.

A game of singles is also planned between G. H. Stone and Prof. W. C. Cobb and they in conjunction with Wallace Anderson, Lawrence Ericsson and others are considered among the city's best.

All girls wishing to enter the tournament are asked to meet Friday at 9:30 o'clock in the morning and to see Mrs. A. C. Weber who will be in charge.

COLORS OF BRADLEY BROOD FLUTTER CHALLENGE

ARISTOCRATS OF TURF AT NEW WASHINGTON PARK RACE

$100,000 PURSE OFFERED, RICHEST EVER COMPETED FOR IN AMERICA

By BERT M. DENBY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Chicago, July 1.—The colors of the Bradley brood, aristocrats of the turf, will flutter a challenge from the barrier of the new Washington park race track Saturday, July 10, when the famous American Derby is revived in Chicago with a $100,000 purse, the richest ever offered in America.

Bubbling Over and Bagenbaggage, who placed one-two for the stables of Colonel Edward Bradley in the Kentucky derby are on the entry lists and demanding a great deal of favor among the dopesters, since the stable announcement that Carlaris, winner of the Tiajuana derby and Coffroth handicap is a doubtful starter.

Carlaris suffered an injured leg shortly before the Kentucky derby and may not be fit for the Washington park classic, according to word from W. T. Anderson, owner.

Formidable opposition to the Bradley stars is seen in Haste, who nosed out Bagenbaggage in a break neck finish in the Fairmount derby.

William Woodard of Lexington, Ky., Bradley's representative, is at the track and declares the plant to be one of the best laid out in the country. He said that Bradley will have 10 of his fastest thoroughbreds at the opening.

It is predicted that 700 horses will be on the grounds when the bugles call out the starters in the first race Saturday.

The entire turf world is watching the opening of the Washington park track with extreme interest in view of State's Attorney Crowe's threat to interfere with pari mutuel or certificate booth betting. The Illinois Jockey club, sponsors of the new track, one of the most expensive and elaborate ever built, plan to operate pari mutuel machines for the convenience of the betting turf fans and to resort to certificate books, a deviation of the machines, if necessary. Crowe claims both are illegal under the Illinois statutes, however, and has promised "necessary action."

The Jockey club, according to its president, Robert Sweitzer, a political foe of Crowe's, will make a test case of the affair, resorting to an injunction restraining the state's attorney from interfering. The outcome is expected to determine to a large extent the future of horse racing in the Chicago area.

INDUSTRIALS, RAILS ADVANCE

New York, July 1.—(UP)—Reinvestment of July dividends and interest disbursements which totalled around $500,000,000 went ahead on an active scale in today's stock market situation, resulting in substantial advances in many first class industrials and rails.

Call money eased off to 4½ per cent after renewing at 4¾ per cent reflecting the passing of the slight strain incident to the semi-annual settlements and this factor added to the bullish sentiment ruling in speculative quarters.

United States Steel and General Motors, the two recent leaders encountered heavy profit taking by interests who had taken a long position in anticipation of the investment demand. However, these offerings were absorbed in easy style and in the late afternoon Steel rebounded to around the best levels of the movement.

The market closed lower.

MRS. PONZI APPEALS TO GOV. FERGUSON

Austin, Texas, July 1.—(UP)—Mrs. Rose Ponzi, wife of Charles Ponzi, Boston's financial wizard, who is being held under $20,000 bond at Houston, was expected to arrive here late today or early Friday for a conference with Governor Miriam A. Ferguson, at which she will appeal to the woman executive to refuse the requisition of the governor of Massachusetts for extradition of Ponzi.

The Texas governor has declined to make any statement concerning the case.

Body's Ingredients

The chief ingredients of the human body turn to gases—water, vapor and carbon dioxide. The others, calcium, phosphorus, etc., turn into solids which become a part of the soil. The body changes not to gas alone, but to gas and dust.

FASHIONS

By HEDDA HOYT

New York, July 1.—(UP)—"Fifty years from now the skirt, as an article of women's apparel, will have disappeared entirely," says Booth Tarkington, the novelist.

Mr. Tarkington continues to say that the short, scant skirt which is worn by women today is merely a relic, a vestige. He believes that there is no real reason why it should continue to exist and he expects to see the time when all women will wear garments similar to those now worn by men.

Perhaps Mr. Tarkington is right although most women will be unwilling to agree with him at present. Still, 200 years ago men were the gayly dressed birds of humanity. They far outdressed women in finery. Costly velvets, satins, laces, silk stockings and silver shoe buckles were included in their ensemble. The clothing of a man of wealth afforded yearly work for a dozen or more poor people.

The first display of women's independence came when women began to outdress their menfolks. In time women's clothes became so ornate and so costly that men ceased to compete with them.

Modesty, which consists in conformity to accepted rules, kept women on the war hunt for fine feathers, for many years. Today, however, modesty doesn't enter into the game of dressing. Women dress for comfort and convenience in defiance of former custom. Any woman who has known the comfort of outing-breeches knows that trousers are more comfortable than skirts since they are less hindrance to activity. Who knows but that some day in the near future we shall accept trousers as our lower covering? It is very possible.

Women will always combine vanity with comfort, however, and it is safe to say that they will never accept the shirt, stiff collar and heavy coat which men wear. As long as necks and arms are beautiful women will want to display them. Still—there are a good many smart girls in modern society who are wearing men's tuxedos for evening accasions. This, in itself proves a basis for Mr. Tarkington's argument on women's future garb.

Beaver Meat Palatable

The body meat of the beaver has rather a gamy flavor, but if properly cared for and cooked is excellent, and was generally preferred by trappers to any other game, even in the early days when buffalo, elk and deer were abundant. The tail is fatty tissue, very rich and palatable, and considered a great delicacy.

PRETTY MUTE DEATH MYSTERY

AKRON, OHIO, POLICE TRY TO SOLVE ALLEGED ASSAULT AND ACCIDENT

Akron, O., July 1.—(UP)—An alleged assault and a subsequent automobile accident which resulted in the death of Opal Woodward, pretty 24 year old mute, confronted police today.

Miss Wodoward was said to have been abducted by two men who forced her to accompany them to a cottage in the Portage lake district. A few hours after the girl was killed by an automobile driven by a man named Oliver Sockwell of Akron.

According to the police version of the tragedy, Miss Woodward escaped from her captors after the latter assaulted her. She managed to reach a nearby highway and in attempting to stop Sockwell's automobile, was run down and killed.

Trimmings That Add to Appearance of New Hats

A graceful, wide-brimmed hat of black malines is faced with shell pink frills which also passes around the crown and forms a flat, folded bow on one side—flattering to most faces.

Black malines is faced with black faille and trimmed with aigretted vulture plumage—extremely smart.

Black ballibunti straw is faced with king blue crepe and trimmed with grapes and apples made of silk and velvet.

Suzanne Talbot in Paris trimmed a green horsehair hat with one large red ribbon poppy on the right side, with the green stem twisting round the crown.

Gilt flowers and leaves are used to trim a hat made of mauve faille and straw.

Heavy Wash Silks

A line of wash silk sports dresses for summer, made of spun silk broadcloth, are very dignified, with tucks and pearl buttons as their only elaboration. The quality of the material adds greatly to their appearance, as it has a great deal of body and stands up well. Models show white and an oyster tint, but all the sports shades will be available. These dresses are cut on straight lines with long sleeves and turnover collar with which a tie may be worn.

Hexagon Snow Crystals

One of the odd facts in connection with snow crystals is that practically all of the hundreds of different varieties are hexagonal in form.

Varicose Veins Reduced or Money Back, Says H. P. Dunn

Simple Home Treatment That Is Giving Amazing Results

The world progresses. Today ailments that took weeks to cure can now be ended in a few days. If you have varicose veins or bunches you can start today to bring them back to normal size, and if you are wise you will do so.

Just get an original bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil at any dispensing pharmacist and apply it night and morning to the enlarged veins. It is very powerful and penetrating, and only a little is required.

After a few days' treatment the veins will begin to grow smaller and by regular use will soon reduce to normal.

Moone's Emerald Oil is also a marvelous healing agent. One application for instance stops the itching of eczema, and a few applications cause the eruptions to dry up, scale off and completely disappear. It is equally as effective in barber's itch, salt rheum, redness and inflammatory skin trouble.

People who want to reduce varicose veins, or get rid of eczema, ulcers, or piles in a few days should not hesitate to get a bottle at once. It is so powerful that a small bottle lasts a long time. Any pharmacy can supply you. H. P. Dunn sells lots of it.

Why Men "Crack"

When on the Highway to Success

What Do These Things Tell You?

"Sleeplessness," Doctor Kennedy tells us, "is one of the commonest signs of nervousness. Another is physical unrest. You are showing signs of nervousness when you cannot keep from twitching your eyebrows, shrugging your shoulders, swinging one foot when your legs are crossed; or when you cannot sit at a desk or table without continually tapping with the fingers.

"The nervous man very often finds that he cannot concentrate on one task, but continually goes from one thing to another. He is also very apt to lose interest in the work and recreations that formerly gave him pleasure. And he is easily fatigued. Nervous fatigue is most commonly indicated by a constant feeling of tightness around the head."

THE worry and strain of recent years has been too much for many business and professional men who have not been able to break away from the details and anxieties associated with their occupations.

In a moment you will recall many who have broken down suddenly just when they appeared to be in their prime.

Some have had their lives snuffed out while others have lingered as invalids, lacking the energy and nerve force necessary for the pursuit of their vocations.

The warning symptoms as outlined above by Dr. Kennedy in the American Magazine are well worth a careful study, because with this knowledge you can then detect the indications of failing nervous energy while yet there is time to prevent serious results.

A few days away from the scene of your worries, rest and moderate exercise in the open will help to get you started on the way to better health. Your recovery will be greatly hastened by the use of Dr. Chase's Tonic Pills.

You will not be using this restorative treatment long before you will find yourself sleeping and resting better. And this is what you need above all else.

INDUSTRIALS, RAILS ADVANCE

New York, July 1.—(UP)—Reinvestment of July dividends and interest disbursements which totalled around $500,000,000 went ahead on an active scale in today's stock market situation, resulting in substantial advances in many first class industrials and rails.

Call money eased off to 4½ per cent after renewing at 4¾ per cent reflecting the passing of the slight strain incident to the semi-annual settlements and this factor added to the bullish sentiment ruling in speculative quarters.

United States Steel and General Motors, the two recent leaders encountered heavy profit taking by interests who had taken a long position in anticipation of the investment demand. However, these offerings were absorbed in easy style and in the late afternoon Steel rebounded to around the best levels of the movement.

The market closed lower.

MRS. PONZI APPEALS TO GOV. FERGUSON

Austin, Texas, July 1.—(UP)—Mrs. Rose Ponzi, wife of Charles Ponzi, Boston's financial wizard, who is being held under $20,000 bond at Houston, was expected to arrive here late today or early Friday for a conference with Governor Miriam A. Ferguson, at which she will appeal to the woman executive to refuse the requisition of the governor of Massachusetts for extradition of Ponzi.

The Texas governor has declined to make any statement concerning the case.

Body's Ingredients

The chief ingredients of the human body turn to gases—water, vapor and carbon dioxide. The others, calcium, phosphorus, etc., turn into solids which become a part of the soil. The body changes not to gas alone, but to gas and dust.

FASHIONS

By HEDDA HOYT

New York, July 1.—(UP)—"Fifty years from now the skirt, as an article of women's apparel, will have disappeared entirely," says Booth Tarkington, the novelist.

Mr. Tarkington continues to say that the short, scant skirt which is worn by women today is merely a relic, a vestige. He believes that there is no real reason why it should continue to exist and he expects to see the time when all women will wear garments similar to those now worn by men.

Perhaps Mr. Tarkington is right although most women will be unwilling to agree with him at present. Still, 200 years ago men were the gayly dressed birds of humanity. They far outdressed women in finery. Costly velvets, satins, laces, silk stockings and silver shoe buckles were included in their ensemble. The clothing of a man of wealth afforded yearly work for a dozen or more poor people.

The first display of women's independence came when women began to outdress their menfolks. In time women's clothes became so ornate and so costly that men ceased to compete with them.

Modesty, which consists in conformity to accepted rules, kept women on the war hunt for fine feathers, for many years. Today, however, modesty doesn't enter into the game of dressing. Women dress for comfort and convenience in defiance of former custom. Any woman who has known the comfort of outing-breeches knows that trousers are more comfortable than skirts since they are less hindrance to activity. Who knows but that some day in the near future we shall accept trousers as our lower covering? It is very possible.

Women will always combine vanity with comfort, however, and it is safe to say that they will never accept the shirt, stiff collar and heavy coat which men wear. As long as necks and arms are beautiful women will want to display them. Still—there are a good many smart girls in modern society who are wearing men's tuxedos for evening occasions. This, in itself proves a basis for Mr. Tarkington's argument on women's future garb.

Beaver Meat Palatable

The body meat of the beaver has rather a gamy flavor, but if properly cared for and cooked is excellent, and was generally preferred by trappers to any other game, even in the early days when buffalo, elk and deer were abundant. The tail is fatty tissue, very rich and palatable, and considered a great delicacy.

PRETTY MUTE DEATH MYSTERY

AKRON, OHIO, POLICE TRY TO SOLVE ALLEGED ASSAULT AND ACCIDENT

Akron, O., July 1.—(UP)—An alleged assault and a subsequent automobile accident which resulted in the death of Opal Woodward, pretty 24 year old mute, confronted police today.

Miss Wodoward was said to have been abducted by two men who forced her to accompany them to a cottage in the Portage lake district. A few hours after the girl was killed by an automobile driven by a man named Oliver Sockwell of Akron.

According to the police version of the tragedy, Miss Woodward escaped from her captors after the latter assaulted her. She managed to reach a nearby highway and in attempting to stop Sockwell's automobile, was run down and killed.

Trimmings That Add to Appearance of New Hats

A graceful, wide-brimmed hat of black malines is faced with shell pink frills which also passes around the crown and forms a flat, folded bow on one side—flattering to most faces.

Black malines is faced with black faille and trimmed with aigretted vulture plumage—extremely smart.

Black ballibuntl straw is faced with king blue crepe and trimmed with grapes and apples made of silk and velvet.

Suzanne Talbot in Paris trimmed a green horsehair hat with one large red ribbon poppy on the right side, with the green stem twisting round the crown.

Gilt flowers and leaves are used to trim a hat made of mauve faille and straw.

Heavy Wash Silks

A line of wash silk sports dresses for summer, made of spun silk broadcloth, are very dignified, with tucks and pearl buttons as their only elaboration. The quality of the material adds greatly to their appearance, as it has a great deal of body and stands up well. Models show white and an oyster tint, but all the sports shades will be available. These dresses are cut on straight lines with long sleeves and turnover collar with which a tie may be worn.

Hexagon Snow Crystals

One of the odd facts in connection with snow crystals is that practically all of the hundreds of different varieties are hexagonal in form.

Why Men "Crack"

When on the Highway to Success

What Do These Things Tell You?

"Sleeplessness," Doctor Kennedy tells us, "is one of the commonest signs of nervousness. Another is physical unrest. You are showing signs of nervousness when you cannot keep from twitching your eyebrows, shrugging your shoulders, swinging one foot when your legs are crossed; or when you cannot sit at a desk or table without continually tapping with the fingers.

"The nervous man very often finds that he cannot concentrate on one task, but continually goes from one thing to another. He is also very apt to lose interest in the work and recreations that formerly gave him pleasure. And he is easily fatigued. Nervous fatigue is most commonly indicated by a constant feeling of tightness around the head."

THE worry and strain of recent years has been too much for many business and professional men who have not been able to break away from the details and anxieties associated with their occupations.

In a moment you will recall many who have broken down suddenly just when they appeared to be in their prime.

Some have had their lives snuffed out while others have lingered as invalids, lacking the energy and nerve force necessary for the pursuit of their vocations.

The warning symptoms as outlined above by Dr. Kennedy in the American Magazine are well worth a careful study, because with this knowledge you can then detect the indications of failing nervous energy while yet there is time to prevent serious results.

Varicose Veins Reduced or Money Back, Says H. P. Dunn

Simple Home Treatment That Is Giving Amazing Results

The world progresses. Today ailments that took weeks to cure can now be ended in a few days. If you have varicose veins or bunches you can start today to bring them back to normal size, and if you are wise you will do so.

Just get an original bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil at any dispensing pharmacist and apply it night and morning to the enlarged veins. It is very powerful and penetrating, and only a little is required.

After a few days' treatment the veins will begin to grow smaller and by regular use will soon reduce to normal.

Moone's Emerald Oil is also a marvelous healing agent. One application for instance stops the itching of eczema, and a few applications cause the eruptions to dry up, scale off and completely disappear. It is equally as effective in barber's itch, salt rheum, redness and inflammatory skin trouble.

People who want to reduce varicose veins, or get rid of eczema, ulcers, or piles in a few days should not hesitate to get a bottle at once. It is so powerful that a small bottle lasts a long time. Any pharmacy can supply you. H. P. Dunn sells lots of it. —Advt.
